

NESTLED IN A TREE

13. Dezember

The Fair Oak Farm and its new Eco-Lodge Tree Houses offer a cosy accommodation.

The 'Fair Oak Farm' in East Sussex welcomes visitors with its new luxury Eco-Lodge Tree Houses. Nestled in an ancient treeline and amongst mature trees, each of the two lodges provide couples with complete privacy and uninterrupted valley views across the stunning Sussex countryside. A winding path from a dedicated parking area leads to a sheltered balcony which has both ramped and stepped access. Built almost entirely of sustainable timber and fully insulated, these spacious lodges contain a Queen size double bed, en-suite wet room and wardrobe and a comfortable seating and dining area. The luxurious accommodation also includes flat screen digital TV with integral DVD, wireless broadband, DVD library. The fully equipped kitchen offers integrated dishwasher, washing machine/dryer, fridge with freezer, electric hob, oven with grill and microwave. Central heating, hot water, fresh white linen and towels are inclusive. The 'Fair Oak Farm' welcomes visitors from around the world who enjoy self-catering weekly stays and weekend breaks. Booked in conjunction with existing accommodation in converted Grade II Listed buildings, the addition of the new self-catering accommodation in the trees means groups of up to 19 people can now stay at 'Fair Oak Farm'.
